

Technical information for
NORMAN General Assembly meeting 2025

Gdańsk, Poland

02– 03 December 2025

GUIDED TOURS

organized by Gdansk Tourism Organization

<https://visitgdansk.com>

1. Freedom and Solidarity Guided Walk

Date: December, 1

Start: 17:00 (2,5h)

Meeting point: Monument to the Fallen Shipyard Workers of 1970

Maximum number of participants per tour: 20

Experience Gdansk's powerful story of courage and change. Stroll through the historic shipyard with a guide who will bring to life the events leading to the fall of communism, then step inside the European Solidarity Centre for a quick yet inspiring visit. A perfect way to connect with the city's spirit of freedom and solidarity in a short, uplifting tour.

2. Gothic Heart of the City

Date: December, 1

Start: 17:00 (2,5h)

Meeting point: The Green Bridge

Maximum number of participants per tour: 35

Set out on an unforgettable journey through Gdansk's Gothic wonders and timeless stories. Stroll the atmospheric Old Town, where old churches and grand gates reveal the city's rich past. Step inside the majestic St Mary's Basilica and climb its 409 steps—there is no elevator—to reach the tower's viewing platform and admire a breathtaking panorama. With inspiring tales and spectacular views, this tour captures the very soul of Gdansk.

3. Legends and Stories of the City

Date: December, 3

Start: 16:00 (1,5h)

Meeting point: Neptune's Fountain

Maximum number of participants per tour: 35

Immerse yourself in the myths and mysteries of Gdansk during this one-hour walk. Stroll along Długa Street and the Long Market as your guide shares fascinating tales of hidden treasures and the city's golden age of wealth. This tour is the perfect way to experience the magical spirit of Gdansk in a brief yet unforgettable way.

4. Museum of the Second World War Visit

Date: December, 3

Start: 16:00 (1,5h)

Maximum number of participants per tour: 20

Discover one of Europe's most powerful museums with an individual audio-guided tour. Step inside the striking, modern building to explore immersive exhibitions that reveal the global scale of the conflict and its impact on everyday lives. This self-guided visit is an inspiring and thought-provoking way to understand the history that shaped the world.