Rick transforms decades of real-life policing experiences into unforgettable comedy. With a storytelling style that is sharp, authentic, and highly relatable, he delivers hilarious behind-the-scenes stories about law enforcement, family life, and the absurd situations that can only happen in the real world.

His performances are designed for adult audiences and feature mature themes while remaining corporate clean and free of excessive profanity or offensive content. Whether you've worked in public safety or simply enjoy great storytelling and laughter, this is an event you won't want to miss!
