

Pathways to Recovery

Support teams are critically important to meet people where they are and let them know they have options. The journey to recovery is not the same for everyone.

The visual was derived from various interviews with key interested parties to understand barriers to accessing prevention, treatment, and recovery services for individuals with Substance Use Disorders (SUD).

CHOOSE

Promote person-centered treatment, recovery care, and services

YOUR

OWN

PATH

Approach their recovery journey holistically, addressing the “whole person”

Create a trusting treatment relationship

Inspire connections with social support

Provide counselor or peer support

Connect to food, housing, transportation, and other support programs

Deliver care and services 24/7

Strengthen relationships with family, friends, caregivers, peers, and others of significance