

PARTICIPATION STATEMENT. Admittance to all NAMI convention areas, sessions, workshops and the exhibit hall is limited to registered attendees with convention badges. Admittance to ticketed luncheons and dinners is limited to attendees with tickets. The NAMI Convention is a private event and organizers have the right to admit or deny entrance.

CODE OF CONDUCT. NAMI is committed to offering events that provide safe and healthy opportunities for attendees to learn, network, and socialize. To help make this possible, all attendees, speakers, sponsors and volunteers at NAMI events are required to agree with the following code of conduct. The code of conduct outlines expectations, as well as the consequences for unacceptable behavior.

Expectation

- Participate fully by taking advantage of new learning opportunities and sharing with others your experiences and hope for the future.
- Show respect and kindness to others.
- Be mindful of your surroundings and of your fellow participations. Alert NAMI event staff or organizers if you notice a dangerous situation, someone in distress or violations of this code of conduct.
- Be aware of your wellness and the need for selfcare - always seek help when needed.

Unacceptable

- Violence or the threat of violence are unacceptable.
- Disrespect, harassment or intimidation are unacceptable.
- Sustained disruption of talks or events is unacceptable.
- Unwelcome contact and sexual attention are unacceptable.
- Inappropriate public behavior that violates social norms is unacceptable.

Attendees are expected to observe this code of conduct at all NAMI events. Attendees who do not uphold these standards will jeopardize their event participation. Contact a NAMI staff member onsite to intervene if you observe or experience an unacceptable situation. Venue security, emergency medical or mental health services and/or local law enforcement may become involved, if deemed necessary.
