

Enter a new world of theatrical imagination with 'Secret of the Raft', a bilingual and interdisciplinary performance merging language, culture, art, and cutting-edge technology. In this immersive work, Géricault's iconic painting 'The Raft of the Medusa' is transformed into an interactive hybrid live and digital experience, challenging audience perceptions of history and immersing them in 21st-century media creativity. Louise Howlett, Artistic Director of ReAction Theatre based in Melbourne, Australia, will guide you through groundbreaking innovations that have emerged while developing the work and reveal the remarkable story behind the painting that inspired it.

