Roundhouse

411 S Capitol St.

Santa Fe, NM 87501

This year's NGWS sessions will be hosted in the Santa Fe Roundhouse, New Mexico's State Capitol building. Dedicated in 1966, it is the only round capitol building in the country. Its design combines elements of New Mexico Territorial style, Pueblo adobe architecture, and Greek Revival adaptations.

Enjoy the Capitol Art Collection of paintings, photography, mixed media, textiles, ceramics, glass works, sculptures, and furniture. The work of more than 600 New Mexican artists is represented in the collection displayed in the Rotunda.

Santa Fe's history as a capital city dates to 1610, when conquistador Don Pedro de Peralta established it as the capital for the Spanish "Kingdom of New Mexico," making Santa Fe the oldest capital city in the U.S.

Fly Santa Fe Regional Airport, located 20 minutes outside Santa Fe, has limited flights from DEN, PHX, and DFW. This airport does not have standing taxi or rideshare services. If using this airport, we recommend making your ground transportation or car rental reservations prior to arrival.

Ground Transport from ABQ Airport

Option 2 - The NM Rail Runner Express is a commuter rail that operates between Santa Fe and Albuquerque seven days a week.

- First, use the Shuttle Bus Service from airport to downtown Rail Runner station
 - Use ABQ RIDE Route 50 bus to connect to the Train; shuttle will meet the Train at the Alvarado Transportation Center / Downtown Albuquerque Rail Runner Station.
