Total Loss File Handling

DESCRIPTION

Total losses are getting more complicated than ever before. 80% of total loss file handling is knowing the law, while only 20% is about the car.

Questions arise such as:

Can an insurer abandon salvage at the shop?

What is a writ of replevin?

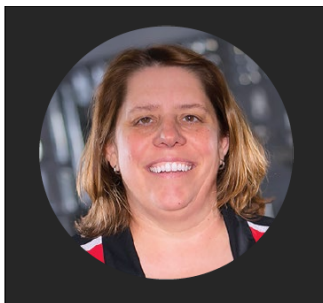

What can I charge for total loss?

...and How do I handle a total and negotiations?

In this class, we are going to answer these questions for you.
