

BIOGRAPHY

Educator: Scott Brown

Scott is a professional automotive service technician with over 37 years of professional experience. He is dedicated to continually advancing his technical competencies on current and future automotive systems. Scott is also a technical instructor with a strong focus on vehicle electronics, vehicle network communications, engine performance, automotive service information systems, and advanced driver assistance systems service, diagnostics, and repair.