
SESSION

ADAS Systems, Diagnostics, and Calibrations for the Repair Shop Technician

DESCRIPTION

In this course begins with a brief overview of ADAS component operation and diagnosis. Applying what we have learned from theory and operation of these systems we will dive into real world case studies showcasing diagnostic strategies that are unique to the world of ADAS. Attendees will leave with a general understanding of how to begin approaching ADAS calibrations and diagnostics.

Sponsored By
Snap-on®

Educator: Mike Reynolds