

Call for Research Posters

In the context of the international conference on Marriage: Formation and Constituents of Stability, which will take place on 23-25 February 2021 virtually, the Doha International Family Institute invites you to submit posters contributing with insights into the marriage formation and constituents of stability

The conference will provide an international platform for researchers and policymakers to discuss the topic of marriage at large and all relevant factors related to marriage and family. Through interactive sessions, the conference will provide a venue through which social scientists, policymakers, practitioners, NGOs, and CSOs can interact.

Through their posters, researchers will have the opportunity to share their findings with policymakers, experts, representatives of regional and international organizations, and representatives of civil society organizations from around the world.

You can submit research posters on one (1) or more topics relating to the following areas:

- ◆ Marriage and Socioeconomic Challenges
- ◆ Age and Marriage: Between Early and Late Marriages
- ◆ Foundations of a Happy Marriage
- ◆ The Future of Marriage Policies
- ◆ Overcoming the Challenges of Disability and Marriage
- ◆ Marriage in the Time of COVID-19
- ◆ Experiences and Challenges of Cross-Border Marriages
- ◆ Marriage in Conflict Zones
- ◆ Is Technology the Doom of Modern Marriage?
- ◆ Extended Families and Marital Stability

The selected posters will be featured on the conference virtual platform and website.

Guidelines for submission of posters

Technical Guidelines:

An abstract on the research contributions containing the following aspects:

- o Title of project
- o Authors and affiliation(s)
- o Funding agency (if the research project is funded)
- o Background
- o Objectives
- o Methodology
- o Main findings/ Results
- o Recommendations

Technical Guidelines:

Final posters must be in A0 format (118.9 cm x 84.1 cm). Posters can be written in English or Arabic. Posters should be eye-catching, attractive, presents sufficient information and easy to read.

- o Heading should contain a title, author(s), and author affiliations.
- o Keep at least a 1-inch margin on all sides.
- o Paragraphs should be no longer than 10-20 lines.

Submission details

Please submit your poster(s) by email, using the subject: Call for posters to DIFI, by 12 February 2021. Finalists will be informed of their selection on 15 February 2021 and are to be read. All posters selected for presentation will be required to submit a finalized version of their poster, in PDF format, by 11 February 2021.

By submitting a poster to this call, applicants agree to the publication of their poster on the conference virtual platform and website, should their poster be selected.

Please submit your abstract and poster draft to: Dr. Azza Abdelmoneium
aabdelmoneium@qf.org.qa

For questions related to this call, please contact
aabdelmoneium@qf.org.qa

