

How The Irish Times Higher Options uses the personal information you provide

Please note the following information with regards to your attendance at The Irish Times Higher Options.

When you register to attend Higher Options, we'll keep you updated on all you need to know to support you in joining the event. We may also send you relevant, timely updates prior to the event with information that will enable you to gain the most from attending. This information could include:

- List of exhibitors
- List of speakers
- Talks and lectures timetables
- Guidance on navigating the exhibition space
- Updates on guides and supplements relating to Higher Options.

You can opt out of these communications at any time by clicking the 'Unsubscribe' link in any email.

By participating in the virtual exhibition with The Irish Times Higher Options.

The very nature of a virtual event is to find information and make connections with exhibitors. If you access exhibitors' information and content or join Q&A interaction with exhibitors they will receive your contact details and details of the subjects that you are interested in. They will be able to send you info about course details and open days that are relevant to your areas of interest. You can opt out of exhibitor communications once they have made contact with you if you wish to do so.

Exhibitors will contact you using the email address you have used at the time of booking.

Terms and conditions of booking*

Before completing your registration to attend The Irish Times Higher Options 2021, please check and complete the information below. You can read our booking terms and conditions here [link to be supplied] and privacy policy here [link to be supplied] which explains how we use your personal information.