A MESSAGE FROM THE NATIONAL PRESIDENT

ELSIE COOKE-HOLMES

Greetings Sorors of the Dynamic Southern Region:

A special thank you to the Interim Regional Director, Cheryl W. Turner, Regional Representative, Kyrsten Sheffield, and to Mobile Alumnae Chapter for hosting this stop of the 2021-2022 Delta Authors on Tour.

I am excited about your efforts to celebrate our sisters in literary arts. Honoring our stories nurtures our souls and inspires us to do something good for our community. Especially during these unprecedented times, reading is vital to enriching one's mental and physical wellness. Communities that value reading help build thriving and intellectual individuals. Reading also allows us to be uplifted, strengthened, and ready to take action!

Sorors, the Delta Authors on Tour initiative is an opportunity to support our very own and to ensure that their hard work receives a greater level of exposure. Since its inception, Delta Authors on Tour has influenced more than 800 sorors to become first-time published authors. I encourage you to support our authors by purchasing their books and asking your friends and family to do the same. There is power in numbers!

I am grateful for your support of this national program, and I salute all of those who worked so diligently to bring this opportunity to fruition.

MARCIA BUTLER HOLT

CANARA S. PRICE

Welcome to the seventh season of Delta Authors on Tour! Exposing the world to stories penned by sisters of our illustrious organization, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated.

We are excited to invite you on this journey as we continue to promote black women authors, increase literacy, and subsequently improve our economy by supporting the works that our authors have created. What better way to do all of this than by attending our virtual tour stops across the country and by purchasing books for not only yourselves – but, for your family and friends of all ages. This is a national initiative that will benefit the entire community.

THANK YOU! To our regional leadership teams for saying “yes” to DAOT; to our 70+ authors for sharing your literary gifts; to the hard-working Host Chapters for providing the virtual framework and planning for a fun and creative environment; and to all of you, our sorors, for your unwavering support. We are certainly better together and it’s the unity of our sisterhood that allows us to make this happen.

Let the seventh season of Delta Authors on Tour begin!

Southern Region

Greetings Deltas and Friends!

The Mobile Alumnae Chapter has the distinction of being among a select few chapters to host the National Delta Authors on Tour! It is my pleasure to be a small part by offering greetings and congratulations!

Delta Authors on Tour started in 2010 as a key program under Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.'s National Arts & Letters Commission. The Mission of the National Arts & Letters Commission is to promote a positive image of African Americans and other minorities through the mediums of music, dance, drama, and poetry. It is a platform for members of the sorority who are authors, to promote literacy, provide information about writing and publishing, and share their own literary works and journey.

Someone in attendance has a book inside of them waiting to happen! But they need courage to take that next step. It is my hope that after listening to these talented authors share their literary journeys, that you will get the inspiration you need to make it happen! If you'd just rather read a good book, then you are in for a treat because each Delta Author is New York Times Best Seller List Worthy!!

On behalf of Krysten Sheffield, Regional Representative, and all elected and appointed members of the Dynamic Southern Region, congratulations, and we wish you much success Mobile Alumnae Chapter as you celebrate our 2022 Delta Author's on Tour!

Yours in Delta,

Cheryl Turner

2021-2022 VIRTUAL STOPS

How This Works

This season, we are excited to again have you virtually shop online with us! We thank you in advance for perusing through this exciting document with our featured authors' books! Here's how it will work:

1. On all flyers, each chapter has listed an event registration link. Please make sure to sign up early as some stops may be limited!
2. Thirty days prior to a tour stop, each chapter will release a DAOT Order Guide highlighting each author invited to their Region. Featured authors have provided two methods of virtual payment and this document will be used for patrons to purchase the highlighted works of these exceptional authors.
3. Prior to each stop, a link will be sent to the registered attendees by the Host Chapter.
4. The DAOT events are hosted on virtual online platforms such as Zoom or Hopin and are scheduled to last 2 hours. This format allows each author to speak about her fascinating book(s) and includes individual Breakout room sessions where you will have an opportunity to directly engage authors who've particularly piqued your interest. During the event, Patrons will also be able to virtually order books directly from the author. All purchases will be shipped to you, free of charge.
5. In order to best facilitate the s&H process, all books will be autographed, not personalized. If you'd like to order more books, simply repeat the process.
6. The last day you may purchase books will be midnight in your time zone i.e., 12 p.m. EST, CST, PST, etc.. If books are not received two weeks after the tour stop, PLEASE let the chapter know at the email address on the title page.

The fearless little sister hatches a plan to catch the mysterious sock monster and convinces her big sister to come along for the ride! It's a fun story about a mischievous little monster with a penchant for socks but also about sisterhood and how these sisters band together to solve problems.

It's all fun and games until your buddy gets the classroom job that you wanted! Malcom and Myles are best buds who find themselves in a bit of a tiff over a classroom job assignment. Myles has long had his eye on the hall monitor position, but when his teacher assigns the job to his best friend Malcom, things get a little rocky between the boys. THE PENALTY FOR SUCCESS:

My Father Was Lynched in Lowndes County, Alabama

Just weeks before Christmas, 1947, Josephine Bolling was five years old and learned that her father, Elmore Bolling, just 39 and the father of seven was dead. Elmore Bolling was a leader in Lowndes County's black community, had established himself as a man who volunteered to serve the less fortunate and had worked hard to build a small trucking business and provide for his family and others.

In this moving and important book, The Penalty for Success: My Father Was Lynched In Lowndes County, Alabama, the author tells the story of the murder of a black man in 1940s Lowndes County, Alabama. It is a story that reveals the scheme to cover up a "lynching". Josephine Bolling McCall's story of her father's murder presents convincing evidence that he was lynched, although he was not hanged, mutilated, or burned before a crowd of people. Elmore Bolling was shot six times in the front of his body with a pistol and once in the back with a shotgun. After years of research, including interviews with relatives and elderly Lowndes County residents, Josephine Bolling McCall sought and found answers to many troubling questions that she had about her family, especially about events in her father's life. Her journey of discovery presents a revealing narrative of time, a place, and people that challenge us to rethink the reality of life for both blacks and whites in a rural, southern community.

JOSEPHINE BOLLING MCCALL, AUTHOR

Josephine Bolling McCall is an Alabama-based speaker, author, and educator who addresses America's overlooked history of lynching and the racial caste system that made it possible. As one of the few children of a Jim Crow South lynching victim speaking today, Jo is a primary source for this period in America's history of racial terror.
