Theology is not a degree, it's a lifestyle. Existing as a first-year student; "challenged, nurtured and supported" summarise this year's current experience. Who would have perceived that within just a few intense weeks I would understand Greek, encamp a rethinking mindset and be on the path to find my "why?" to life? Newbold is more than a college, it's a family.

Leslie Dixon, UK

Fulfil your call to ministry by:
