PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

Recently, Jill and I visited our four nephews in North Carolina. They are growing up fast—the youngest is now 9 years old, and the oldest is 15. In the woods behind their house is a little creek. We ventured to the water's edge to skip some stones, and while some rocks didn't skip at all, others hopped along the surface many times. But what fascinated me the most was that each skip left a little ripple that got bigger and bigger. That's what I call making an impact!

Because of you, 3ABN is making an impact on the world. When I think of all the projects 3ABN is involved in and the ripples being made for the gospel of Jesus Christ, I have to say, Praise God!

3ABN Cuba is just one area where we're seeing this ripple effect. We are receiving reports of baptisms as a direct result of 3ABN Latino being on El Paquete ("The Package") in Cuba. As I look at this recent photo of a precious soul being baptized in an outdoor bathtub, I cannot help but notice the care given to the ceremony—the white curtains hanging in the background, and the beautifully woven palm fronds surrounding the tub. It reminds me of Luke 15:7, where Jesus speaks of the joy in Heaven when a sinner repents.

Thank you for supporting the mission of 3ABN to go into all the world! The picture of the baptism in Cuba is one of many souls worldwide who are accepting Jesus because of you. Thank you for making ripples!

Greg Morikone
3ABN President

the Beauty OF A CHILD

by Aunt Francine

“Children are a blessing and a gift from the Lord.” Psalm 127:3 (CEV)

Spend some time with children, and you’ll see their laughter and light-hearted spirit. As adults, we tend to overthink things; but somehow, kids have a way of turning frowns upside-down and bringing a smile to everyone in the crowd. Surely you have seen it—even in the most mundane and everyday places. You’re sitting in a waiting room where no one says a word; yet, as soon as a child enters, everyone is laughing and talking as if the sun has just reappeared from behind a cloud!

PATIENCE AND GRACE

As parents, we sometimes forget what a true blessing our children are—especially when we need an extra portion of patience and grace! Allow me to give you an example.

I like orchids, so for three years, I hoped my orchid would bloom again someday. Imagine my delight when I finally saw a little bud shooting out of the stem! For several weeks, I anticipated the bloom and watched it grow two-and-a-half inches. But in less than a second, my daughter accidentally knocked the plant off the shelf and broke the new bud in three different places. What a feeling of utter disappointment I had, knowing that moment of beauty was no longer a possibility. But how much more does God see the beauty about to blossom in each of us, then feels the same disappointment when He sees we missed our opportunities? He longs for us to tell others about Jesus, but do we really seize every chance to share that He is coming soon with those around us?

SHINING LIGHTS

Looking back, there are three children in particular who have been greatly impacted after recording programs with us for 3ABN Kids Network. Through some encouraging words, they came on set, and later, their parents reached out to thank us for the change they saw in their child. They now see the confidence their child has to tackle other tasks and projects simply because they came to our 3ABN Kids recording. They are true testimonies of how shining our light for Jesus can open our hearts and transform us from the inside out.

We often don’t see the impact 3ABN’s ministry has on every child, yet from time to time, we read and hear comments that remind us how important our witnessing is to the world and that we are genuinely making a difference, seeing the proof in more children who are willing to give their lives for Jesus.

Sometimes kids write in or send emails mentioning how they appreciate some of our programs like Jesus My Light and Creation Is! Science, or we hear from younger viewers who enjoy Tiny Tots for Jesus. It fills my heart with joy to hear about their growing love for Jesus and the new ways they find to share Christ’s love.

PRAY FOR MORE POSSIBILITIES

Every day, we pray for more possibilities to reach our children and recently, we have started recording another new program series called 3ABN Kids X-Press, where children from around the world share how they are living for Jesus and using their talents in their community. This program also strives to be a safe space for kids to ask questions and discuss tough situations.

More children are discovering our 3ABNKids.tv website where they find resources such as our Detectives of Truth Bible studies, crafts, and recommended reading.

Children are a blessing from the Lord, and it is through them we learn more about the character of Christ. As we eagerly anticipate the growth of our children, even if they seemingly break apart our expectations, may we provide nourishment that fosters new growth essential for changing their lives. Thank you for your prayers, support, and encouragement for our children to actively participate in some of our recordings.

Together, we can bring joy to the child who can so easily bring a smile to the face of others and increase the kingdom of God. ☺

GUIDED ALL THE WAY

“Now the Lord had said to Abram: ‘Get out of your country... to a land that I will show you.’” Genesis 12:1

Sometimes the story of how the Lord brings us to work at 3ABN is so unusual that it begs to be told. Such is the case with Daniel and Heather Perrin and their family.

Raised in a Seventh-day Adventist home, Daniel says his walk with God has been filled with “aha moments”—but never anything quite like this! You see, after working as a Bible teacher and chaplain in Washington State for over 18 years, he and his family made the extraordinary decision to move somewhere only God knew; and just like Abraham, they trusted Him to show them where to go.

It Started With Prayer

“I was very happy where I was working and Heather was homeschooling our five children,” he says. “But two years ago, she read a book called Steps to Personal Revival by Helmut Haubeil that suggests praying for a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit every day. As Heather began praying for this, the effects flowed into our family; issues we were praying about began to be resolved. Then, the Lord impressed her to plant a garden, and since we lived in the city, the only alternative was to move to the country. As we considered it, the impression grew stronger. In fact, it became so strong that we prayed about it daily and even started to pack! We found a house in the country, but it wasn’t meant to be. Yet as we continued praying, we kept hearing, I’m going to move you, so be ready.”

The Search

For some reason, the Perrins felt strongly impressed to move East, so Daniel began calling different schools and churches. As they looked at the Midwest, they both felt an unusual peace about Illinois and wondered, Is this where He wants us to go? Daniel remembered watching Pastor John Lomacang on TV and called him, and that’s when he discovered 3ABN’s headquarters were close by. “I looked at their job openings and even sent my résumé, but I didn’t get an immediate response,” he says. “But looking back, I think God knew my faith needed to grow first.”

He called back several times, and although an interview was never set up, their convictions grew stronger. “Finally, we listed our house, and amazingly, it sold in five minutes!” he says.

A Secret Prayer

In secret, Heather had prayed, Lord, please don’t take us somewhere with unfriendly people, and God answered her prayer in a marvelous way. Someone had come to purchase an exercise treadmill, and when he asked where they were moving to, she answered, “Kentucky, Tennessee, or maybe Illinois.”

“I’m from Illinois!” he exclaimed, “and they’re the friendliest people!” Then later, as he was leaving, he repeated, “The friendliest people you’ll ever meet live in Illinois!”

Heather could hardly contain herself as she told Daniel what she’d asked of the Lord in secret, but Daniel still felt the need for a sign of his own, so they prayed again.

A few minutes later, a neighbor he rarely saw asked where they were moving to. And when Daniel mentioned Illinois, his neighbor exclaimed, “Oh wow! My whole family lives in Illinois!”

Daniel was amazed. “Not five minutes after we prayed, I got my confirmation!” he says. “But without a job prospect, it was tough to load up the U-Haul and start the trip, trusting God to lead us.

“We drove for a week, and as we approached St. Louis, I realized we needed gas and decided to stop at the first gas station in Illinois. But that station wasn’t convenient for the U-Haul, so we drove on to the next one, on the other side of the highway. Heather pulled up in front of me, but my pump wasn’t working, so she pulled up to the last pump. After we got gas, we pulled forward from the pumps and I got in the Suburban so we could have family prayer, like we did at every state border. We still didn’t know where to go, but we trusted God to give us a sign as we prayed. And then it happened! As we finished praying, my daughter Sienna suddenly pointed at the road sign directly in front of us. It read, Perrin Road!”

Pastoral Department Manager, J. D. Quinn (L) discusses a Bible passage with Daniel Perrin.

Daniel becomes visibly moved as he explains how they all felt. “What are the odds that we would finish our first prayer in Illinois, look up, and see a road sign with our family name written on it? Later, we found out there are only ten Perrin Roads in the whole country! God led us to that gas station and that street sign to give us the assurance that He was guiding us all the way!”

God arranged for Daniel to finally get an interview, and now he works in 3ABN’s Pastoral Department. “We’re approaching the end of this world,” he says, “and soon every believer will need to leave their home and possessions behind and go wherever God leads.” He pauses for a moment, then adds, “Oh, and by the way, the people in southern Illinois really are friendly!” ☺

When the Mail Arrives

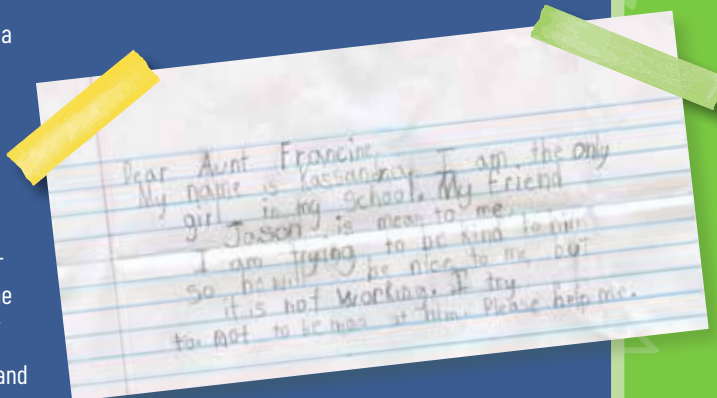

We can't describe the joy we feel each day when the mail arrives with fresh reminders that the Holy Spirit is working on thousands of hearts, both young and old, through the ministry of 3ABN. Your letters, little notes of encouragement, emails, phone calls, and prayer requests just make our day, and we praise God for each of you who pray for and support 3ABN's ministry.

Sometimes we receive letters like this one, which will be used in an upcoming 3ABN Kids X-Press program. Aunt Francine will use it to address the problem of bullying, and has already answered this letter personally, too.

"We're excited to offer kids a safe place to ask questions in order to guide them on their journey and encourage their positive personality traits to blossom," she says. "Letters like these are cherished and demonstrate the desire of kids around the world who want to be like Jesus."

Your prayers, encouragement, and financial support mean the world to us and to thousands of children who watch 3ABN Kids Network every day. We long to hear what God is doing in your life through this ministry—along with your prayer requests and any suggestions you may have for future programs. So please stay in touch, and thank you for being part of our 3ABN Family! ☺

Dear Aunt Francine and all
3ABN friends,
Thanks a million for having us for the reading of CREATION is! SCIENCE. We had a wonderful time, we learned a lot, we made new friends and on top of that we can share with our friends the episode

Dear Francine,

We just listened to the Christmas program that you did with the children. It was excellent — the best we have heard. We really appreciated the talented young people who really seemed to have Jesus in their hearts. Your presentation was calm and very spiritual and we believe God is helping you to fill your role there at 3ABN. We know this took a lot of time and practice and we just wanted to thank you. We are great grandparents so know that your program isn't just for the kids!

Dear Aunt Francine,

It was nice meeting you and Ginger this past Monday, there at 3ABN. I really enjoyed my time there. Thank you for the coloring books and crayons. Also, please give my regards to Brother Robert, for gifting me my own Ginger. I'm having lots of fun with her.

I look forward to seeing you all again someday.

Sincerely, Khaleb (via email)

Dear Aunt Francine,
I wanted to write this letter to

God-Given Technology

Advances in technology are blessings that allow us to produce more Christ-centered programming for our nine television networks. One blessing, in particular, is the installment of a robotic camera system which efficiently supports our camera crew.

As you know, television cameras have drastically changed in quality and size over the years, and the new robotic cameras provide a versatility that was never possible before. They can easily be programmed to get beautiful shots that would be difficult for human operators to get, but more importantly, they free up our talented camera people to do other work that requires human skills.

“Over the years, we’ve done all we can to produce ever-better programming that reaches a wider range of people and cultures around the world,” says 3ABN President, Greg Morikone. “But we always continue to look for better ways to utilize the talents God has given our workers, too. As we’ve gained experience with robotic camera technology, we’re convinced that it can enable us to run all three of our studios at the same time, using the same amount of crew. No jobs will be lost, since we’ll use our camera operators in other areas such as program development, editing, and remote location shoots.”

We are so grateful to God and to each of you for faithfully supplying all our needs. Time is short, and He is providing us new ways to reach more souls for the kingdom. Thank you for all you do for the Lord!

- ¼ teaspoon almond extract
- 4 ounces vegan cream cheese
- 1 cup non-dairy whipped topping
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 small container fresh blueberries
- 1 small container fresh strawberries, halved

DIRECTIONS

1. Prepare cake according to package directions. Let cool.
2. In a small bowl, mix the remaining ingredients (except fruit) together with electric mixer.
3. Cut completely cooled vegan vanilla cake into squares. In clear parfait cups, layer in the following order: cake, fruit, cream. Repeat layers. Top with a few berries.
