

At Home at Andrews

There's a place for you at Andrews. This is a community where you belong.

As one of the most diverse schools in the United States we've got something for everyone. People come to Andrews from around the world and leave with friends and experiences they remember for the rest of their lives.

Andrews is a supportive community where you are encouraged to grow in your faith and develop both professionally and as a well-rounded person.

Welcome to the family!

Andrews is the only nationally-ranked Adventist university!
We're also ranked as one of the most diverse campuses in the U.S.*

We cheer each other on. From the sidelines of a Cardinals basketball game in the Andreasen Center for Wellness or just during the course of a regular day

We get it... Leaving home to go to school can be scary.

That's why we're so proud of our warm campus family that makes Andrews feel like home away from home.

Whether you are catching up with friends at our healthy, all-you-can-eat café or working it all off at a spin class with a workout buddy, Andrews is an experience in community.

You don't have to go to college alone. At Andrews you are part of a tribe of World Changers that believes in creating a better future together. Sign up for one of our 70 student clubs, show off your intramural soccer skills or lend a hand mentoring underprivileged kids. There are so many ways to get involved at Andrews.

We live together. We laugh together. We pray together.

World Changers are made here together.

Our friendly faculty and staff care about your future and look forward to guiding you as you explore the choices available at Andrews.

Explore Andrews

Don't worry if you haven't yet decided on a major. You're in good company. Forty percent of students start college without a major and four out of five students change their major while in college.

When you're accepted into Andrews, you're accepted into a school that supports you every step of the way.

Our Explore Andrews program will help you discover and play to your strengths. We'll help you find the academic track that sets you up for wins and a bright future.

Our professors care deeply about your happiness and success. They stop to chat after class and around campus. If you need support they are happy to help.

As you leave Andrews and go on to change the world, your professors will be eager to hear your success stories. And their help is not confined to your time on campus: Andrews professors and our career coaching team will help you get jobs and other opportunities in the real world.

You're not going to college to get stuck in the slow lane.

Consider one of our MORE FOR LESS programs where you get both an undergraduate and a graduate degree in less time for less money.

Don't put off your first paycheck. Pick a program that puts you on the fast-track to your dreams.

At Andrews you are setting yourself up to change the world. From your first day on campus you'll see it stands out for how international it is. There are students here from almost 100 countries.

On top of that, Andrews has dozens of global opportunities for you to make a difference internationally. There are study abroad programs, international tours and volunteer opportunities.

You don't even have to leave campus to get a taste of this global flavor. On any given day you could be attending an evening of Filipino comedy sketches, sharpening your language skills at a French Bible study or going bowling with KASA, the Andrews Korean club.

The international Andrews network gives you a wealth of options for the future. Our alumni are spread across the globe. After you graduate, no matter where you go in the world, an Andrews friend will be nearby.

You'll find a safe place where you can grow in your faith at Andrews.

Christian friends, professors, chaplains and mentors make the Andrews experience uniquely supportive and meaningful. We offer a world-class education and encouragement for your walk with Jesus.

Pick from more than 30 vibrant and diverse area churches for worship. You may even score an invite to someone's home for Sabbath lunch (just sayin'.)

Experience the exciting possibilities of virtual reality, learn how to become an innovator by using your God-given talents.

Andrews students founded the life-changing Benton Harbor Street Ministry. Our alumni have gone on to launch startups. Andrews graduates travel the world as digital nomads and entrepreneurs. They have launched popular media platforms and coded industry-defining software.

Thinking about how you'll pay for college?

At Andrews we are firm believers that a top-notch education should be affordable. Our undergraduate students never pay full price.

We offer every admitted student up to $14,000 in scholarships per year. And that's just the beginning. The average out-of-pocket cost is often about $6,000 thanks to your hard work, good grades and financial aid.

Check out our interactive savings estimator tool (at andrews.edu/tuition) to get a better feel for the financial help you could get at Andrews. Don't forget, a student job and summer ministry work with a matching scholarship can help slash costs.

The bottom line is there are lots of ways to make college fit your budget. You may even find that Andrews is more affordable than schools that promote cheaper tuition.
