INSIDE

HELPFUL RESOURCES AND IDEAS FOR YOUR MINISTRY

DEAR MINISTRY LEADER,

Your efforts are helping the church tell the world about Jesus. It is exciting when members use innovative ministries to attract visitors and help them follow Christ. Thank you for what you do for the Lord.

Surveys show that the majority of new members say their friends and relatives were the deciding factor in their search for a new church. So as we connect with our friends, neighbors, and acquaintances, remember that AdventSource is the place to find resources, information, and support for your ministry. These resources can help make your desire to share Jesus with others into an effective outreach. Together we can tell the world of a wonderful Savior.

Sabbath School Material Standing Orders

It's easy to place a standing order for Sabbath School materials through the Adventist Book Center. Simply call your local Adventist Book Center and tell them how many Bible Study Guides you would like for each division. You can also order take-home papers for children. You can request that your quantities become a standing order, meaning you will receive the same quantity each quarter. Each shipment of Sabbath School materials will include a form you can fill out and return to the Adventist Book Center for quantity adjustments. Forms include instructions on how to update your existing standing order online each quarter. To find your local Adventist Book Center visit AdventistBookCenter.com or call 800.765.6955.

CHILDREN'S SABBATH >>

Children's Sabbath is an annual program designed to promote awareness of children's needs and our responsibility to meet their needs as a church. Children's Sabbath is traditionally scheduled for the first Sabbath in October. However, many churches enjoy having Children's Sabbath programs more often. The North American Division creates a Children's Sabbath program each year that is free to download. Visit ChildMin.org for this year's program.

Altogether Wonderful

This book explores both the "why" and the "how" of intergenerational worship and provides simple history of worship through the Bible, an exploration of Jesus' theology of childhood, and His own approach to intergenerational worship. By the time you reach the end of this book you'll have the resources to run at least three different intergenerational worship services on Creation, The Story of The Lost Sheep, and The Parable of the Talents.

IDEAS FOR INVOLVING CHILDREN IN THE

Church Service

Reprinted from the
Quick Start Guide for Children's Church

FAMILY-LED CHURCH SERVICES

Once a month, ask a different family or a group of several families to lead the entire church service. Both adults and children can take part in leading the singing, scripture reading, prayer, special music, children's story, and sermon. If the family does not feel comfortable sharing the sermon, they can ask the pastor or a guest speaker.

CHILDREN'S STORY

Invite the children to come to the front of the church and sit together, facing the storyteller. Some churches have the children collect a special "lamb's offering" just before the story. Children collect the money from the congregation and place it in a special container.

CHILDREN'S HYMN

Incorporate a hymn or song the children know that appeals to them. It does not have to be from the church hymnal. Encourage the congregation to learn a song the children enjoy and sing it with them. Use the children as a part of the praise and worship team that leads music in your church.

CHILDREN'S BULLETINS

Ask a volunteer to prepare a children's bulletin each week. Give it to the children as they enter the church. Incorporate an activity (puzzle, word search, etc.) illustrating the main point of the pastor's sermon and include a picture for non-readers to color.

QUIET BAGS

Make small cloth bags containing a hard book, paper and crayons, a soft quiet toy, and a picture with removable vinyl stickers. Keep these bags on hand to loan to parents or caregivers for very young children to use during the service. Collect the bags for refilling and storage until the next Sabbath.

SPECIAL MUSIC

Invite children to sing or play instruments for special music instead of always asking adults to share. Children can be included in the regular choir, or else you could start a children's choir, inviting community children to join. Children who play musical instruments can also perform for song service, offertory, or prelude. This encourages children to practice so they can use their skills in church as they grow more proficient.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Older children can read scripture and lead the responsive readings in the back of the hymnal. They can lead out individually or together with their family. Including children on the platform demonstrates that they are part of the church family.

We Can Trust The Bible

We Can Trust The Bible traces the story of how Moses received a table of stone on which God had written the Ten Commandments, the prophets had dreams and visions, and the Holy Spirit taught and inspired the disciples. It also shows how God preserved His Word through the darkness and persecution of the Middle Ages, and the struggle to give the Bible to the people in languages they could understand. Finally, we see how the Puritans brought the Bible to America and how archaeology proves the ancient records.

But we don't need carved rocks and broken pottery to prove that the Bible can be trusted. We can trust the Bible because it is filled with God's promises from beginning to end—and God keeps His promises.

Teaching Kids About the Fruit of the Spirit

BY APRIL BURVIL

Young children can struggle to connect biblical concepts to everyday life. Understanding and applying abstract thought has to be one of the biggest learning curves in childhood. Thankfully, God has given us the perfect tool: the Fruit of the Spirit!

Galatians 5:22–23 (NIV) says, “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.”

Here are three easy ideas for illustrating the Fruit of the Spirit in your classroom:

1. Put it to a song. We start our circle time each morning with “The Fruit of the Spirit” song. There are several versions out there already, but it’s also fun to see if your class can come up with their own tune and lyrics.
2. Give each fruit a definition in terms your group of kids can understand and create posters showing those definitions. For example, “Love: Treat others the way I want them to treat me.”
3. Recognize when you see the Fruit of the Spirit shining through the kids. I created a felt tree for my classroom, and printed and laminated fruits (labeled Love, Joy, Peace, etc.) with Velcro dots. When I see a student displaying one of the Fruits of the Spirit, I give them a fruit to add to the tree. This not only encourages the kids to be loving, kind, joyful, and gentle, but it also helps them understand how the Holy Spirit shines through them.

Friends and Heroes DVDs

Friends and Heroes is the epic animated tale of two young people in the First Century—Macky and Portia—whose idealism and friendship leads them across the ancient world. As they strive for justice and even survival through Egypt and Jerusalem, and all the way to Rome, they become friends and then, in turn, heroes. Through Macky and Portia, Friends and Heroes brings the inspiring stories of the Old and New Testaments to children in the 21st century. Like our heroes, children will be empowered by what they see and hear, as they share the courage and compassion of Macky and Portia.

Play-n-Worship

Play-n-Worship comes with all the perfect ingredients to help kids learn about Jesus. Each Play-n-Worship kit contains a 52-week program that's ideal for children's church, child evangelism, or other programs at your church.

Each kit comes with activities so fun, it's practically impossible for even the wiggliest or squirmiest children not to be fully engaged. The irresistible songs and simple object lessons make teaching Bible truths like, well, child's play. All songs, stories, and activities point children to Jesus.

Kits include leader's guides, music CDs and DVDs, storytime boards, and more.

PRINCIPLES FOR CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES LEADERS

Reprinted from the Quick Start Guide for Kindergarten Sabbath School

AS A CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES LEADER YOU NEED TO COMMIT TO SETTING A HIGH STANDARD. HERE ARE SEVEN PRINCIPLES THAT WILL SERVE YOU WELL. THINK OF THEM AS A GUIDE TO SUCCESSFUL MINISTRY.

PERSONAL

In order to share Jesus with others, even small children, you must have a personal connection with Jesus Christ. Personal devotional time, a focus on prayer, and openness to the Spirit's leading are all crucial to being a successful leader.

EXCEL

It's not how much you do, but how well you do it. Show people that you are reliable, accurate, and able to anticipate and deal with problems. People are more likely to help someone who represents excellence.

NURTURE

Be supportive of others. Even self-motivated people are encouraged by a supportive atmosphere. Under such conditions people are more likely to open up and share ideas.

DIVERSIFY

Get to know many different kinds of people (with diverse interests, opinions, and backgrounds). The more people you know, the more opportunity for networking.

BE VISIBLE

Participate in groups that share your interests. Seek out and join other people with similar interests and needs.

PERSONALIZE

Learn other people's unique qualities. When you meet people, remember more about them than their name. What are their backgrounds, interests, experiences, personalities? The more you know about a person the easier it is to relate to them.

ORGANIZE

Make a networking plan. How can you best make use of these principles? Who can you add to your network list? Start by going through lists of participants in workshops you've attended. In your networking efforts, remember that you must be willing to give at least as much as you receive from networking—whether that be through experience and resources or old fashioned elbow-grease. You must put in in order to take out.
