Remembering Jesus 101 in Your Will or Trust

Here are a few projects that your partnership will support

EVANGELISM

Here at Jesus 101, we are constantly looking for innovative ways to evangelize to younger generations of present day, meeting young people where they're at. We offer free media programs that are reaching hundreds of thousands of young adults across the world, along with staying current with social media through videos, audio, internet radio, and many other programs in order to reach them in a language that speaks to them.

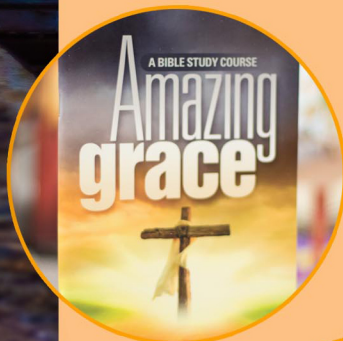

*W*ise stewardship requires that we adequately prepare for the future. At Jesus 101, we are thoughtfully planning for the continuation of our ministry – ensuring that true Christ-centered biblical teaching will prevail in the lives of our children, our grandchildren, our churches and cultures around the world.

By remembering Jesus 101 in your will or trust, your partnership can help us establish this vital mission for future generations. Such thoughtful planning will help spread the message of the gospel and serve as a bold Christian witness to those who learn of your intention to support our work through your estate plans.

We would love to partner with those who desire to establish a spiritual legacy that will continue to spread the good news that "Jesus Wins!"

*Thank you so much for considering Jesus 101
in your estate plan!*

PRISON MINISTRY

We are eager to share with everyone the transforming love and forgiveness of Jesus and His gift of salvation! Jesus 101 provides resources that impact the hearts and lives of incarcerated men, women and youth, as well as their families.

"I was in prison and you visited me" — Matthew 25:36

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Most of us agree that caring for the poor and marginalized is a central part of the gospel. What could be a better passage for reinforcing this principle than Matthew 25:40, where Jesus commands us to care for "the least of these." Jesus 101 offers free resources to hospitals, shelters, prisons, schools, churches and more – all of which would not be possible without the generosity of loyal friends just like you.

RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

Jesus 101 is regularly developing new resources to equip and encourage discipleship of current members of the Adventist church. These resources include television series, videos and books for individual and small group Bible studies, radio programs, and much more.
