

Indian Health Service Health Promotion/Disease Prevention
Public & Community Health Virtual Summit
Using Innovative and Collaborative Approaches to Support Community Health Partners
September 7-9, 2022

Purpose: To bring together public and community health professionals, workers, and teams to learn, network, and share ideas to promote and support patient and community health.

Learning Objectives:

1. Examine innovative strategies and practices to address chronic conditions and diseases.
2. Identify new approaches to improve patient outcomes.
3. Apply new strategies to engage our patients and communities to mitigate behavioral health risks that contribute to obesity, HIV/STI, and cancer.

Target Audience: Health care providers, health care administrators, nurses, nutritionists, public health nurses, CHRs, health educators, and other interested individuals
